

WWII Occupation of the Channel Islands Tour

Meet your coach and guide and head out to the country parishes stopping off to take in breathtaking scenery on the way. Learn about the Channel Islands fascinating five year occupation history during WWII. Also learn facts about contemporary life in the Islands of Guernsey.

Visit the Guernsey Occupation museum in the Forest parish. Take a refreshment at this stop. The museum offers a unique experience of what life was like in Guernsey from 1940-1945.

Your coach will then take you to various locations along the west coast where you will be able to view German fortifications and arrange access to the Fort Hommet Gun Casement before returning to St Peter Port.

On your return to St Peter Port, if time permits, visit La Vilette Underground Military museum to gain a further insight into war time Guernsey

Please note: Access to the Fort Hommet Gun Casement would be by prior arrangement outside of selected dates and times.